ENCOUNTERING THE EUCHARIST

The sacrifice is named after the manner of a sacred deed; for by a mysterious prayer it is consecrated for our sake in memorial of the Passion of the Lord, whence, by His command, we affirm it to be the Body and Blood of Christ. The sacrifice is of the fruits of the earth until it is sanctified by the invisible Spirit of God and made the Sacrament. And the Greeks call the bread and chalice of this Sacrament to be Eucharist, which is translated in Latin, bona gratia (good grace or favor). And what greater good is there than the Body and Blood of Christ?

~St. Isidore of Seville, Bishop and Doctor (560-636)
