ENCOUNTERING THE EUCHARIST

In response to my fears, it seemed that my soul was made to understand that my God willed to come and abide in it; not as a place wherein to make delight, but as His property and possession. So, in that sense, I had no right to deny Him entrance. Therefore, I was to receive Him as its sovereign owner and implore Him to make my heart the seat of His divine Majesty.

The Holy Communion of the Body of Jesus Christ causes us to enter into possession of the Communion of Saints and the joys of Paradise.
